The Anatomy of A Pastor

Pastors are to have a mind that is bright to keep track of all that's going on among the flock.

Eyes, sharp to see the needs of the sheep under his care.

Ears, tuned to hear the cries of the needy.

Mouth, skilled in proclaiming the Word.

Shoulders, strong to bear difficulty and disappointments.

A heart, full of compassion for the hurting and the lost.

Hands gentle but firm to guide a wayward sheep.

Knees, hardened by long hours of prayer.

Feet, ready to go in whatever direction God leads.
