OBITUARY

JESSIE M. DIXON

The subject was born on April 1, 1907, in Chattanooga, Tennessee. She was a graduate from Howard High School in Chattanooga.

In 1938, Jessie moved to Buffalo, New York where she met and married William B. Dixon. She joined Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church where she served faithfully until her demise.

She was a former president of the Litmus Club; a member of the King's Daughters of Bethel; and was involved in many other civic organizations.

She leaves to mourn -- two sons: Leonard G. Lane, and David Dixon; eight grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, two sisters, and a host of other relatives and friends.

THERE IS NO DEATH

In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on earth lasts beyond her departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you, that spirit looking out of other eyes, talking to you in the familiar things she touched, worked with, loved as familiar friends. She lives on in your life and in the lives of all others that knew her.
