OBITUARY

Ollie Gertrude Barnes Glass

Ollie was born in Cayuga, Ontario Canada on the 23rd day of December, year our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-nine. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Jack Glass in 1945. She became the step mother of Ruth Ella Glass.

Shortly after their marriage, they migrated to the United States of America and resided at Buffalo, New York. She joined Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church where she served on Stewardess Board Number 4 until she became ill. For the past seven years Ollie has been a residence of the Hamlin Terrace Nursing Home.

Ollie Glass leaves to mourn on niece, Mrs. Betty Browne of Canada; one great niece, Wendy Browne of Canada; two faithful cousins, Vickey and Robert Garland of Buffalo; and a host of friends.

We loved Ollie but God loved her best.
Sleep on our dear one and take your rest.

I love Thee because Thou hast first loved me and purchased my pardon on Calvary's tree.

I love Thee for wearing the thorns on Thy brow; if ever I loved Thee my Jesus tis now. God's word tells us of His love, our words tell Him of our love.
