BENEDICTION

Nate,

Your beautiful smile, your joy and laughter will always be with us, even after.

Your football jerseys, your bowling balls, will let us know that the junkyard calls.

This is for those who didn't know Nate, but everyone knew he had no hate.

We always knew what was on your mind because you never bit your tongue.

With your fiesty, playful attitude you'd tease all of your love ones.

You worked hard to keep your big cars which gave you so much joy; your family will miss and think of you constantly.

Nate, you were "the Daddy's Boy."

Bonita Dobbins
Melody L. Carter
