Obituary

Susie Mae Gourdine-Jackson was born on September 8, 1908 in Haycoda, Alabama to the late Robert and Mamie Gourdine. She came to Buffalo in the early 50's.

Susie confessed Christ at an early age. She joined Bethel A.M.E. Church on Eagle Street. Susie was a faithful member of Bethel after the church moved on Ferry until she became ill in the early 80's.

About eighteen years before it closed Susie was employed at Hotel Buffalo. She was a devoted member of The Eastern Star until she became ill. As a member of Good Samaritan, she served as Matron and Assistant Matron in past years of Elizabeth No.19.

Susie was married to the late Sidney Jackson and stepmother of David Mears of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was one of five sisters; Ester Richburg, Lois Honeycut of Birmingham, Alabama, the late Moudell Hudson and the late Annie Robinson of Buffalo, and one brother; the late Robert Gourdine of Birmingham, Alabama. Other relatives include her great nieces; Deborah Wells and Lula Mae Gates, great great niece; Michell Minor, great great nephews; Charles E. Wells and the late Richard (Ricky) Minor whom all she raised, one sister-in-law; Sylonia Gourdine of Birmingham, Alabama, and a host of nieces and nephews and friends.
