From Suffering to Glory

Romans 8:16-20

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs--heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with him, him that we may also be glorified together. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God.

We Miss You Uncle Sherman

We lost our uncle one of few

He was in a lot of pain and suffering too

We didn't want you to leave us but

We understand your time here was done

So GOD took your hand

Now you're gone all we can do is pick up the pieces

And pull ourselves through

You will be missed I hope you know

With you goes the feistiness and temper we will always remember

Now go be with the angles and tell them we said hello

Acknowledgements

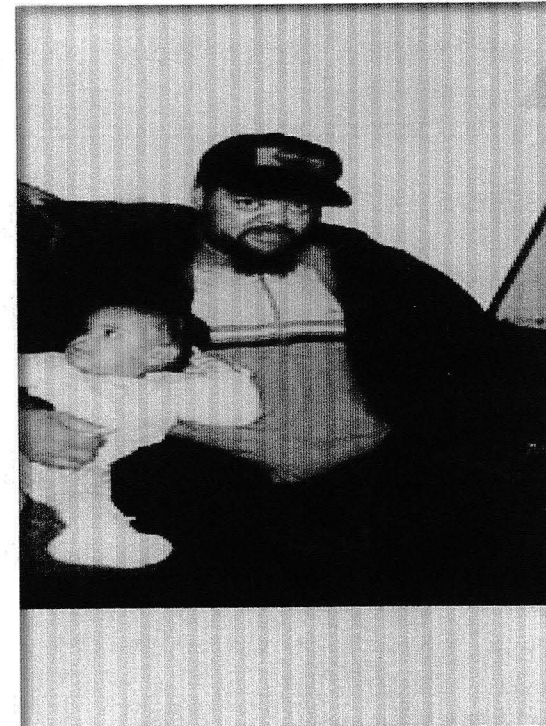

Maybe you sent a card or made a dish, maybe you were there to hold our hands. Maybe you just thought about us or said a silent prayer.

Whatever you've done meant so much. The family of Sherman D.

McMillan sincerely appreciates your kindness.

May GOD bless and keep you.

Obituary

Sherman Donald McMillan was born May 23, 1949 in Buffalo, NY to the late George and Sisere McMillan. He accepted Christ at an early age and attended Bethel AME Church.

He was educated in the Buffalo Public School system, at the original East High school. He was employed at Buffalo General Hospital in the dietary department for several years and as a welder at a salvage yard in Black Rock.

Although Sherman McMillan never had any children of his own, he was loved and cared for by all his nieces and nephews.

He leaves to mourn his memory his brothers

Samuel J.(Marilyn) McMillan, George L.(Martha) McMillan Jr., and his sister Carolyn D.(Robert) Davis Jr. and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and cousins.

Sherman had a host of friends that were special to him that also mourn and cherish his memory.
