City Honors School

FOR GIFTED AND ABOVE AVERAGE STUDENTS

MASTEN and NORTH STREETS • BUFFALO, NEW YORK 14204 • 685-7279

January 26, 1988

Dear Rev. Dr. Smith:

City Honors School is pleased to announce our observance of Black History Month with a week long Learn-a-Bration during the week of February 22-26, 1988. Students and staff have combined to plan an introductory assembly program highlighted by the City Honors School Gospel Chorus, a series of contests of historical nature, a one-act play festival, and a series of mini-workshops featuring identified leaders in Buffalo's black community.

We would be very pleased if you would consider sharing your expertise with small groups (30) of students during forty-minute in-class workshops on Thursday, February 25, 1988.

While we would gladly offer an honorarium, our budgetary cupboard is bare and it is only our sincere appreciation that we might offer as gratitude for your participation.

We are inviting all of our guests to join one another in an informal coffee-tea klatch in the faculty cafeteria from 8:30-9:15, then to proceed to previously assigned classrooms where the forty-minute workshops will be presented to teachers and their students. The invitation extends for all or part of the school day with a luncheon courtesy of Mr. Michael Anelli, our principal.

It has been suggested that you might be willing to discuss _____ in your presentation, but feel at liberty to alter/change this suggestion to best suit your area of interest.

Enclosed please find a response sheet which will aid us in selecting a group of students, Grades 5 - 12, who might be best suited to your presentation. Additionally, these will be used by our staff members so they might properly introduce you.

Thank you in advance for responding by Friday, February 12, 1988.

Sincerely,

Irene McVay - J. J. Duggan
